Ex Albury boy, Ken Helm, is based in the Canberra district of Murrumbateman, and a producer of award winning Riesling dating back to 1977.

This 2006 vintage is outstanding with pronounced floral aromas, lime zest and mouth watering succulence.

Brilliant as an aperitif.

This very cool climate vineyard, located at Bungendore in the Canberra District, offers some of the finest, most Chablis like Chardonnays in Australia. Zesty, citrus fruit and spicy tang of good oak, all bound up with a fantastic velvet finish. Lark Hill is totally biodynamic.

*This is one of my favourite wines.
A Grenache blend from the Barossa with not even an oak chip near it. Light to medium bodied this wine is all fruit, fresh and lively, earthy spice and a succulent finish. DRINK NOW!!*
